Demandan a oficial por abuso sexual a prisioneras

La Unión Americana de Libertades Civiles (ACLU) de Nuevo México presentó una demanda de abuso sexual de una latina y otras presidiarias del Centro Correccional Springer contra un oficial de ese centro de ese estado.

La denuncia fue presentada contra el oficial Christopher James Padilla por el repetido acoso y agresión sexual de Rebecca Martínez, informó este martes ACLU.

La demandante, según ACLU, señaló que también están implicados el jefe de seguridad Roberto Gonzales, y los ex guardias John Sánchez y Christopher Biddle, quienes "no la protegieron del abuso continuo".

"Padilla usó su poder como autoridad correccional y como supervisor de Martínez para hostigarla sexualmente, abusar y

ATAQUE CONTRA HISPANOS

Una mujer reacciona mientras habla con los medios de comunicación después de asistir a la vigilia del tiroteo masivo que ocurrió en un Walmart en El Paso, Texas, donde Veintidós personas murieron y cincuenta más resultaron heridas.

Por Laura Barros

La comunidad hispana pidió al presidente, Donald Trump, cesar su discurso antiinmigrante tras el tiroteo en la ciudad fronteriza de El Paso, que se ha cobrado ya 22 vidas, ocho de ellas de ciudadanos mexicanos, en el que ha sido considerado el ataque "más letal" contra latinos en el último siglo.

Pese a la condena por parte de Trump al supremacismo blanco, los líderes latinos señalaron que un "manifiesto" publicado en internet por Patrick Crusius, el sospechoso del tiroteo en un centro comercial de El Paso, en el que alertaba de una "invasión hispana en Texas", se asemeja al discurso del jefe de Estado.

"Nuestra comunidad fue directamente atacada por esta persona que para nosotros fue influenciada por los comentarios xenofóbicos del presidente

Cartas del Seguro Social generan preocupación entre trabajadores

El envío de medio millón de cartas "No Match" (no concuerda) por la Administración del Seguro Social a los empleadores ha generado una ola de preocupación entre los trabajadores inmigrantes, que temen que sus empleos y su futuro en este país estén en peligro.

"La práctica de enviar cartas 'No Match' a los empleadores es costosa e ineficaz y pone innecesariamente en riesgo a los trabajadores," afirmó Shannon Lederer, directora de Inmigración del sindicato nacional AFL-CIO.

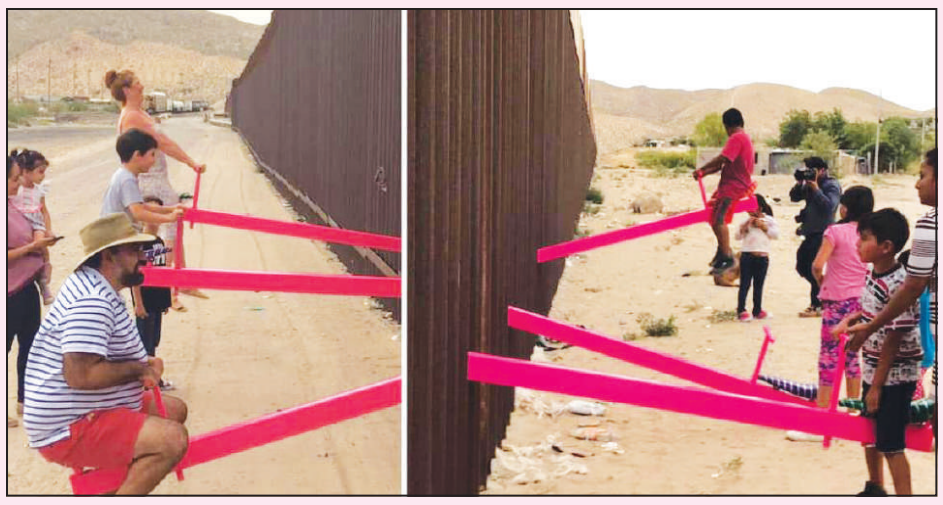
Installed within the slatted steel border fence separating the United States from Mexico, three pink seesaws stitched two binational communities together — allowing children from both sides to connect with one another.



Children smiling and playing on seesaws: An ordinary scene at a traditional park played out at the U.S-Mexico border with the dividing border fence as the fulcrum.

The masterminds behind the "Teeter-Totter Wall" project, Ronald Rael, an architecture professor at the University of California, Berkeley, and Virginia San Fratello, an associate professor of design at San Jose State University, designed the concept for the binational seesaws ten Trump", dijo Sindy Benavides, directora de operaciones de la Liga de Ciudadanos Latinoamericanos Unidos (LULAC, en inglés), quien se declaró "muy triste" con la situación.

El presidente de LULAC, Domingo García, consideró "absurdo" que Trump "diga que estas tragedias son el resultado de Internet, videos y vagas fuerzas malvadas" e indicó que, en algún momento, "debe mirarse al espejo y reconocer su vergonzoso comportamiento".

Para el director de servicios de la organización latina y proinmigrante CASA, George Escobar, "no hay duda de que se puede trazar una línea directa desde la retórica odiosa y antiinmigrante que emana de la Administración Trump hacia este violento acto de terrorismo xenófobo".

La directora de la coalición Families Belong Together, Sandra Cordero, consideró que no se puede olvidar la retórica "llena de odio" del mandatario.

"Varias veces el presidente Trump ha mentido sobre inmigrantes invadiendo, ha continuado separando a familias que buscan seguridad en nuestro país y regularmente se refiere a personas como animales para quitarle la humanidad a aquellos que no son blancos", se quejó.

Para el estratega demócrata Federico A. de Jesús, Trump "debería aceptar su rol en exacerbar el clima de odio e intolerancia que impera en el país y proponer soluciones concretas para evitar que las armas de fuego caigan en las manos incorrectas".

De Jesús, quien fue portavoz hispano de Barack Obama, aseveró que "enfocarse en juegos de video y otras superficialidades no es otra cosa que esquivar la responsabilidad que tanto el presidente como el Congreso tienen de reglamentar la posesión y uso de armamentos de guerra por ciudadanos civiles".

Mientras que el director de estudios de inmigración en el Centro de Libertad y Prosperidad Global del Instituto Cato, Alex Nowrasteh, aseguró que el del El Paso "es probablemente el crimen más letal contra los hispanos en el último siglo".

Pero aunque admitió que ha habido un aumento "en el terrorismo de derecha y supremacistas blancos en Estados Unidos en los últimos años", subrayó que "ataques como estos son extremadamente poco comunes".

Según Nowrasteh, "3,518 personas han sido asesinadas por terroristas en suelo estadounidense desde 1975 hasta finales de 2017, mientras que hubo alrededor de 800,000 homicidios en total durante ese tiempo".

En tanto, María Fernanda Pérez, directora asociada del Centro su madre en una caja de cartón que había en el congelador, y encontraron la respuesta cuando limpiaban el apartamento en el que la mujer vivió durante más de 20 años.

La madre de Smith, Barbara, tenía 68 años y falleció el 21 de julio a consecuencia de un cáncer.

"El cuerpo todavía tiene piel y cabello (...) Estaba momificado", dijo Smith.

Cuando el hombre encontró el domingo la caja, recordó que había estado en el congelador de su madre durante años y que ella le habían dicho que jamás la abriera.

"Tengo 37 años y la caja ha estado en el congelador todo ese tiempo y siempre se me dijo que contenía la parte de arriba de un pastel de bodas", dijo.

El hombre le tomó una foto y le dijo a su novia que iba a abrir la caja esperando encontrarse el pastel de boda de su madre, o quizá dinero, porque la mujer nunca había tenido una cuenta bancaria.

En cambio, halló los restos momificados de un neonato de sexo femenino.

El hombre de inmediato llamó a la policía, que ahora investiga el caso como una "muerte sospechosa". Smith fue interrogado durante unas dos horas y entregó a la policía una muestra de ADN para la comparación genética con el cuerpo.

"Aun estando en su lecho de muerte, (ella) nunca me dijo qué había en la caja", dijo Smith al diario.

"Eso me hace pensar que quizá ella le hizo algo a este bebé y no quería decírselo a nadie por miedo a meterse en problemas", agregó.

Según Smith, su madre había mencionado la pérdida de un embarazo antes de que él naciera, pero que la mujer era muy reservada y nunca dio más detalles sobre ese asunto.

Sólo recientemente Smith se enteró por otro familiar de que su madre había tenido mellizos y que uno murió al nacer y el otro fue dado en adopción.

"Ahora tengo que esperar los resultados de la autopsia para ver si esa bebé llegó a respirar siquiera", declaró Smith.

En declaraciones a la estación de televisión local KMOV, Smith dijo que ahora tiene que procesar el hecho de que "durante toda su vida" estuvo tomando comidas de un refrigerador donde posiblemente estaba almacenada "su hermana congelada".

Si el cuerpo congelado es de una hermana que murió antes que él naciera, eso significa que debe haber estado dentro del refrigerador unos 40 años.

Cartas del Seguro Social...

La Administración del Seguro Social (SSA) envió medio millón de cartas "No Match" la pasada primavera.

Viene de la página A1

Seguro Social (SSA) envió medio millón de cartas "No Match" la pasada primavera, pero es ahora cuando las consecuencias se están empezando a sentir, dijeron varias fuentes.

Las cartas "No Match" son una comunicación o aviso a los empleadores de parte de la SSA para indicarles que la información personal de algún trabajador, como puede ser su nombre o su número de Seguro Social, no concuerda con la que está en los archivos de la SSA.

La SSA les da a los empleadores y a la persona correspondiente sesenta días para resolver cada caso.

Pero especialista en estas cuestiones como Jorge Mujica, del grupo Arise Chicago, en Illinois, declararon que en dichas cartas no se menciona nada relacionado con "permisos de trabajo o el status migratorio" de una persona.

Es más, afirmo Mujica, las cartas en cuestión advierten a cada empleador que "no se debe tomar ninguna acción adversa contra un empleado como despedirlo, suspenderlo o discriminarlo de cualquier manera" porque esas acciones podrían ir contra la ley.

"Las cartas son educacionales, no hay que renunciar y es también para que los empleadores aprenden a usar la base de datos y corregir errores como un nombre mal escrito o una dirección equivocada," dijo Mujica.

"En Estados Unidos todos los trabajadores tienen derechos, tengan papeles o no", subrayó.

Tanto en Illinois como en Minesota y Tennessee trabajadores inmigrantes se han visto sorprendidos por estas cartas "No Match".

Según varios de los consultados, se espera que en el otoño la SSA envíe otras 300,000 cartas más.

Lederer, de la AFL-CIO, preciso que su sindicato ha trabajado por años para mitigar el daño causado por estas cartas a través de las cortes, abogacía, negociaciones colectivas y la defensa de los trabajadores.

A LOS QUE LES GUSTA EL GUACAMOLE

Cuando vallan a comer a algún restaurante es probable que el guacamole que ordenen no este hecho con aguacates. Dicen que en algunos lugares debido a que los aguacates están muy caros, están usando calabacitas y la gente ni cuenta se dan.

A LOS QUE VIAJAN POR AVIÓN

Es mejor que no se droguen antes de subir al pájaro de acero, no les valla a ocurrir como a una chamacona que iba bien drogadota y cuando estaba el avión en pleno vuelo se le ocurrió abrir una de las puertas y se cayo y se mato.

Estos son los que se sienten superiores.
Tenemos problemas y un muro no es la solución.

A LOS DIENTONES

Dicen que el otro día a un niño en la India fue al dentista a que le sacaran 520 dientes que tenia de más. Dicen que el niño parecía todo un tiburón con tanto diente. Los doctores no saben porque tenia tanto diente. Algunos creen que es por la contaminación en ese país o a la mejor porque es un fenómeno.

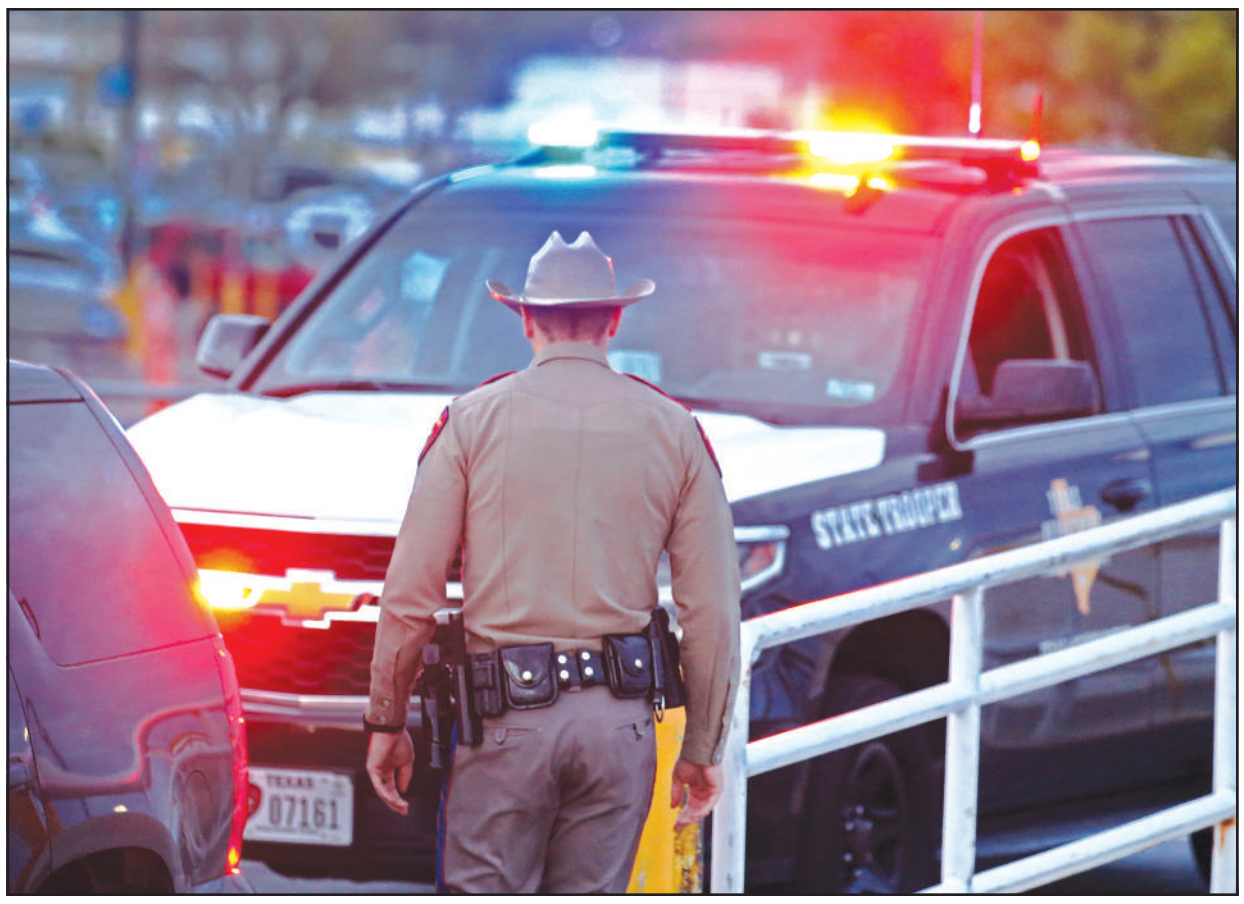
A LOS MIRONES

Tengan cuidado cuando la policía este haciendo su trabajo y no anden de mirones. No sea que los policías los maten como mataron a una señora que estaba viendo como un policía le disparo a un perro que lo quería atacar y al dispararle al perro una de las balas le pego a la señora y hay quedo muerta.

A LOS QUE ANDAN EN BICICLETA

Pónganse muy truchas por que la policía de Oxnard anda mas brava que un león contra ustedes. El otro día dieron unas clases y ayuda para que entiendan las leyes para los ciclistas. Pero por todos lados están dando infracciones de mínimo $100 por andar en bicicleta en las banquetas. Cuidadito pedalear e ir hablando por celular o textear y ni de chiste se le ocurra recibir un fax porque entonces lo refunden en el fresco bote y hasta la llave tiran al mar.

Fallece otra persona en matanza en Texas



Un policía del estado de Texas regresa a su vehículo bloqueando una carretera mientras otros oficiales continúan investigando el tiroteo masivo en un Walmart en El Paso, Texas.

Las autoridades informaron este lunes de la muerte de dos nuevas víctimas de la matanza registrada este sábado en un centro comercial de la localidad texana de El Paso, con lo que el número de fallecidos asciende a 22.

"Justo después de las 10 am falleció otra víctima. El total ahora es 22", informó la Policía de El Paso.

El mensaje fue difundido justo una hora después de confirmar el deceso de otro de las personas heridas durante el ataque.

"(Nos resulta) triste informar de que el número de muertes aumentó en una. Una víctima falleció esta mañana en el hospital", informó el cuerpo de policía de El Paso.

La matanza, perpetrada por un supremacista blanco que fue detenido, dejó también otros 25 heridos, algunos de los cuales permanecen en estado grave.

El ataque ha sacudido al país y agitado del debate político sobre el racismo, la xenofobia y la tenencia de armas de cara a las elecciones presidenciales de 2020, sobre todo porque el domingo hubo otro tiroteo en Dayton (Ohio) en el que hubo otros 9 muertos además del atacante.

Las autoridades investigan el tiroteo de El Paso, ciudad fronteriza con México, como un caso de "terrorismo doméstico" y un "delito de odio", y van a pedir la pena de muerte para su autor.

El presidente, Donald Trump, confirmó este lunes que el responsable del tiroteo indiscriminado, un joven blanco de 21 años, fue el autor de un manifiesto publicado poco antes del ataque en el que critica "la invasión hispana de Texas".

En un mensaje a la nación, el presidente Trump urgió este lunes a los estadounidenses a condenar con "una sola voz el racismo, el fanatismo y el supremacismo blanco".

El mandatario subrayó que el manifiesto publicado por el atacante en internet estaba "repleto de odio racista".

Por el momento se desconocen los motivos del ataque de Ohio.

El Paso es ciudad fronteriza con México con cerca de 700,000 habitantes, y según datos del Censo, más del 80 % de la población es de origen hispano.

El centro comercial donde se produjo el tiroteo se encuentra muy cerca de la frontera con México, y es muy popular entre los ciudadanos mexicanos como lugar de compra durante los fines de semana.

aterrorizarla día tras día", expresó la abogada de ACLU de Nuevo México Lalita Moskowitz.

Explicó que en marzo de 2017, después de que Martínez dejó su trabajo en la cocina por razones médicas y el oficial Padilla no la supervisaba directamente, finalmente se sintió segura para denunciar su abuso.

Sin embargo, según ACLU, los directivos de la correccional no tomaron medidas disciplinarias contra Padilla y, desde que Martínez denunció por primera vez el abuso del oficial, al menos otras cuatro mujeres han señalado que el mismo oficial las acosó, coaccionó y agredió sexualmente mientras estaban bajo su custodia.

"Durante meses sin fin, sin forma de escapar de sus garras, ella vivió en un constante estado de miedo y angustia, hasta el día de hoy, todavía sufre las consecuencias de ese abuso", agregó Moskowitz.

Aseguró que este lunes, cuando se presentó la demanda ante el Tribunal del Octavo Distrito Judicial, Padilla aún estaba empleado como supervisor de mantenimiento en la correccional y continúa teniendo acceso sin supervisión a mujeres encarceladas.

"El trauma que enfrentó Martínez es sintomático de una cultura dentro del Departamento de Correcciones de Nuevo México de ignorar, descartar y tolerar el abuso sexual", comentó Moskowitz.

Manifestó que la única forma de erradicar ese sistema es responsabilizar a los oficiales que abusan de su poder y a aquellos en posiciones de liderazgo que los "envalentonan" y los habilitan al no tomar medidas correctivas.

Recordó que esta es la segunda de una serie de demandas que la ACLU de Nuevo México ha presentado este año en nombre de las mujeres encarceladas que sufrieron similares atropellos y abuso sexual.

ESTRELLAS Y ESTRELLADOS

POR POCO SE MUEREN

Tremendo susto se llevaron por terrible accidente que tuvo lugar en una de las grabaciones de la séptima temporada de la serie 'El Señor de los Cielos'.

FELIZ CON SU ESTRELLA

El que anda muy contento es el director mexicano Guillermo del Toro ya que le dieron su estrella en el Paseo de la Fama.

pensar cómo deben ser estas imágenes, ¡oh no! ¡Mi celulitis! ¡Oh no! ¡No me chupé el estómago! "Pero luego pensé … por supuesto que hay malas imágenes, por supuesto que hay ángulos malos, mi cuerpo no está hecho de roca, ni de todos los músculos. Y la parte más triste son las chicas jóvenes, que crecen en un mundo de aerógrafo, que buscan una perfección que no es real". La chulada explicó que estaba decidida a hablar en nombre de las mujeres jóvenes de todo el mundo. Ella dijo: "Estoy escribiendo esto para chicas como mi hermana pequeña que están creciendo en las redes sociales. Constantemente ven fotos editadas con photoshop y piensan que es la realidad, y todos los ojos se acostumbran a ver la piel con aerógrafo, ¡y de repente piensan que ES la norma! No lo es. Es falso, falso, pero muy falso. Tenemos una visión completamente irreal del cuerpo de una mujer. Niñas, la celulitis es normal, la grasa es normal. Es hermosa y natural.", escribió Camila, y yo la apoyo jajajajaja.

El que anda muy contento es el director mexicano Guillermo del Toro ya que el pasado martes develó su estrella en el Paseo de la Fama de Hollywood. Del Toro fue seleccionado hace dos años para tener su estrella en el Paseo de la Fama, y finalmente se realizó el homenaje para la entrega de dicho reconocimiento. Considerado como uno de los cineastas más prestigiosos y singulares del cine contemporáneo, Del Toro cuenta con dos Óscar con su nombre: Mejor Película y Mejor Director por The Shape of Water (2017). Para que vean que nuestra gente sobresale en todo y por todo.

Hablando de gente sobre saliente, María Elena Salinas regresa a la televisión después de haber salido de Univisión en 2017, pero no a Telemundo, sino a la cadena CBS News. La conocida periodista se une al equipo de CBS donde participará en diversos espacios de noticias, y en toda la información y polémica que se generará con las elecciones presidenciales del próximo año. Salinas al dejar Univisión, empresa donde laboró por más de 30 años, hizo algunas participaciones especiales en Telemundo, por lo que se pensaba que se uniera a esa cadena de televisión hispana, pero su destino era otro. "Es un honor darle la bienvenida a María Elena Salinas al equipo de CBS News" expresó Susan Zirinsky, presidenta de la unidad de noticias de la importante cadena.

A los que no les fue muy bien después de un terrible accidente que tuvo lugar en una de las grabaciones de la séptima temporada de la serie 'El Señor de los Cielos', y dos extras se encuentran en el hospital muy graves. El programa 'De Primera Mano' del canal Imagen TV, dio a conocer un video en el que se aprecia el momento del accidente, en el que un helicóptero se precipita al suelo, cuando dos extras estaban colgados azotándolos en el césped.

Según la información, los dos actores de doblaje se encuentran muy graves en el área de terapia intensiva del hospital.

Mexicano con DACA es separado de su familia por admitir que fumó marihuana

Una estadounidense no acaba de entender por qué su esposo, y padre de sus cuatro hijos, terminó siendo castigado y separado de su familia por diez años solo por decir la verdad a una pregunta sobre consumo de sustancias controladas en una solicitud de residencia permanente.

Christine Palomar lleva casi dos meses de incredulidad y angustia desde que autoridades consulares estadounidenses le negaran la petición de residencia permanente a su esposo, José Palomar, en Ciudad Juárez, México, tras admitir que había consumido marihuana en el pasado.

"Le dijeron que fuera honesto, que dijera la verdad, y él lo hizo, y ahora lo están castigando a él y a toda la familia por decir la verdad?", explica la mujer.

La pesadilla de esta familia comenzó el pasado tres de junio cuando José, de 26 años, viajó a la ciudad fronteriza a terminar un proceso para su estatus legal que en teoría sería "fácil".

José parecía un candidato perfecto para aprobar rápidamente el ajuste de su estatus.

Estaba amparado por el programa de Acción Diferida para los Llegados en la Infancia (DACA) desde 2012, no tiene acusaciones criminales en su récord, está casado con una ciudadana estadounidense, es padre biológico de dos niños estadounidenses y adoptivo de otros dos. Además, trabaja para mantener a su familia y paga impuestos.

"Ni un tatuaje tiene en su cuerpo", dice Christine mientras revisa algunos documentos.

Al marcar de forma afirmativa a la pregunta de un formulario médico sobre si había consumido drogas o sustancias controladas en el pasado, fue su honestidad la que lo dejó al otro lado de la frontera sin posibilidades de regresar a su casa en Corona, California.

"Yo puse la verdad en ese formulario, me tomaron los exámenes de sangre y de orina y después me hicieron regresar para que hablara con un psicólogo", explica José durante una llamada telefónica desde Ciudad de México.

Rodrigo García, padre adoptivo de José y quién lo acompañó a presentar la entrevista, asegura que se les hizo extraño que un psicólogo quisiera hablar con el joven.

"Él estaba perdido en México, lo trajeron a los cinco años a Estados Unidos, es muy inocente y no entendía que estaba pasando", detalla García.

Tras la consulta con el especialista, José recibió una nota que dice: "Como resultado de la evaluación psicológica realizada durante su examen médico, se recomienda que usted asista a un programa de Narcóticos Anónimos o Centro de Rehabilitación para el uso de sustancias por un periodo de al menos tres meses".

También se le recomienda unas terapias de estrategias para manejar situaciones adversas. Nunca le dejaron saber cuál era el resultado de los exámenes.

"Es imposible que haya resultado positivo", asegura el mexicano.

Dos días después, José asistió a una cita en el consulado estadounidense donde lo único que le preguntaron fue el nombre de su esposa.

Al final del proceso, un empleado consular le dijo que su petición había sido rechazada, que había perdido el permiso provisional que le permitía regresar a Estados Unidos, que estaba castigado por diez años, pero podría realizar la solicitud en un año.

"Me destrozaron la vida, yo no soy un adicto, no estoy en negación, estuve en un lugar equivocado pero eso no quiere decir que ahora mis hijos, mi familia, tengan que vivir con que yo soy un adicto a las drogas", recalca José.

Entre lágrimas y destrozada por la separación, Susana Méndez, la madre de José, dice que el joven fue un excelente estudiante y que nunca ha tenido un problema, cuya prueba máxima es que pudo renovar todos estos años el beneficio del programa DACA, promulgado durante la Administración de Barack Obama.

Sin embargo, para el abogado

Mezcal Vive

Para el Consulado de México en Oxnard es grato informar que el Gobierno del Estado de Oaxaca, a través de la Secretaría de Economía del Estado están organizando el evento "Vive Mezcal", a celebrarse del 12 al 14 de septiembre en la ciudad de Oaxaca.

Vive Mezcal será el primer foro mundial de negocios enfocado a promover la industria del mezcal. De acuerdo con los organizadores, se espera posicionar esta bebida espirituosa dentro y fuera del país. El evento busca potencializar la industria del mezcal, en cuyo marco se espera la participación de todos los actores que forman parte del sector, desde el Gobierno hasta el consumidor final.

Vive Mezcal está dirigido a los principales actores del sector de bebidas destiladas desde la distribución (importadores, distribuidores, detallistas, tiendas de supermercados, tiendas departamentales, tiendas especializadas) así como a la industria de alimentos (restauranteros, cadenas hoteleras, comedores industriales, proveedores de cruceros entre otros.

Para las empresarias, empresarios y público en general que pudieran estar interesados en participar, podrán consultar mayor información a través de la página web: www.vivemezcal2019.com, o bien comunicarse de manera directa a los siguientes datos de contacto: Samuel González, correo: invierte@vivemezcal2019.com y hola@vivemezcal2019.com

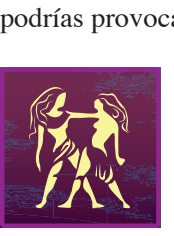
HORÓSCOPOS

Aries. En el caso de que no tengas pareja, ahora será ideal para conocer a tu media naranja. Tu alma gemela te espera, está más cerca de ti de lo que crees, solo tienes que abrirte al amor. Si ya tienes pareja, es muy probable que tengas la necesidad de afianzar la relación con algún tipo de compromiso.

Dinero y trabajo. En el trabajo tendrás un poco de pereza y te costará cumplir con las tareas. Probablemente tu mente esté más centrada en los temas del amor que en otra cosa. Sin embargo, intenta volver a la realidad, porque tu dispersión podría traerte consecuencias negativas en el ámbito laboral.

Tauro. ¿Por qué no mostrar tus puntos débiles de vez en cuando? La personalidad fuerte de los Tauro en ocasiones se vuelve demasiado dominante, sin embargo, también tienen una parte vulnerable en la que les gusta que les dominen. Este juego de dominación y dominado con tu pareja puede llegar a ser muy interesante para cualquier Tauro.

Dinero y trabajo. La búsqueda de la perfección puede llevarte al control en exceso. Querrás controlar todo a tu alrededor en el ámbito laboral, querrás controlar a tus compañeros, cómo se hace el trabajo, incluso cosas que no competen tu autoridad. Calma tus ansias de querer que todo salga bien pues podrías provocarte enemigos.



Géminis. En el fondo de tu corazón sabes cómo solucionar cualquier problema que tengas con tu pareja, familiares o amigos. Solo tienes que ser sincero contigo mismo, tomar la iniciativa y poner las cartas sobre la mesa. Además, puede que tengas que participar como mediador en algún conflicto.

Dinero y trabajo. No te atormentes cuando algo no sale como esperas, siempre lograrás superar cualquier obstáculo si confías en ti mismo. Tu mente creativa se pondrá a funcionar ante la posibilidad de que algo en el trabajo no funcione, de lo que finalmente saldrá una experiencia muy positiva y enriquecedora.

Cáncer. Necesitarás tener toda la paciencia del mundo con algún ser querido y mostrar el mayor respeto por sus decisiones, aunque no sean de tu agrado. Eso sí, no permitas que sus acciones puedan afectarte o mermar tus sueños, el respeto no se trata de eso. Defiende tus intereses con tacto y todo irá bien.

Dinero y trabajo. Algo sucederá en el trabajo que tendrás que enfrentarte a alguien, mostrándote firme sobre cuál es tu postura y qué consideras que es mejor hacer. Tus ideas y sueños no pueden ser arrebatados por ninguna persona, mucho menos por aquellos que no están a la altura de tus expectativas.

Leo. Tu vida social pasará en un instante de cero a mil. De repente, te lloverán invitaciones para acudir a fiestas, eventos, cumpleaños, etc. Probablemente conocerás a muchas personas interesantes, entre las que podría estar tu alma gemela si no tienes pareja. Y si ya has conocido al amor de tu vida, podrás disfrutar con él o ella de todos estos compromisos.

Dinero y trabajo. Tendrás una semana muy próspero a nivel profesional. Alguna de tus metas profesionales se materializarán y te sentirás muy satisfecho contigo mismo en este sentido. Además, conseguirás nuevos contactos profesionales que podrían ser muy valiosos para tu desarrollo futuro a nivel profesional.

Virgo. Si crees que ya no necesitas hacer nada más por tu relación, te equivocas. No des nada por sentado, las relaciones se riegan cada día y nunca deben descuidarse. Aunque a veces te sientas a gusto en la rutina y en la comodidad de amar y sentirte amado, todo puede cambiar en un segundo, no lo olvides.

Dinero y trabajo. Se te da muy bien vender a los demás, pero no te ocurre igual cuando la cosa va sobre ti mismo. Deja atrás las inseguridades y comienza a promocionarte. Lo necesitas para avanzar y crecer profesionalmente, por lo que no tienes que dejar que nada se interponga en tus objetivos.

Libra. Tomar riesgos en una relación es parte de la dinámica del amor. Deberás asumir esto con tu pareja, quizás necesites prestarle un poco más de atención, incluso dejar de hacer lo que tenías pensado hacer. Tu pareja se sentirá muy apreciada por ello, por lo que tomarás la decisión acertada.

Dinero y trabajo. Aunque suceda algo por lo que tengas que ausentarte del trabajo, necesitarás dejar todo atado, ya que si no podrías tener graves consecuencias. Para ello, busca a esa persona de confianza en el trabajo y pídele que te ayude. Una urgencia la tiene cualquiera y siempre puedes devolverle el favor.

Escorpión. Alguien no tan cercano a ti necesitará tu ayuda y tú se la ofrecerás. Sabrás cómo aconsejar a esa persona, aliviarás su pena o malestar con tus buenos y empáticos consejos. Este momento hará podrás formar el principio de una buena amistad inesperada que traerá muchos momentos buenos a ambos.

Dinero y trabajo. Seguirás tu intuición ante una situación concreta en el trabajo y eso te llevará por muy buenos derroteros. Te darás cuenta de que eres más sabio de lo que crees y que tienes muchas capacidades, lo que aumentará tu moral y tu autoestima. Alguien en el trabajo podría estar intentando quitarte el puesto, ten cuidado.

Sagitario. Si no estás dispuesto a hablar a tu pareja desde el corazón, no lo hagas, porque no conseguirás nada. Lo único que puedes hacer con esa actitud es hacer daño a tu pareja y acabar observando impasible cómo se lamenta. Si no tienes el día demasiado empático, lo mejor que puedes hacer es dejar ese asunto para mañana.

Dinero y trabajo. Seguramente, te pasará algo similar en el trabajo que en el amor. No serás capaz de ponerte en la piel de ningún compañero, por lo que lo mejor que puedes hacer es alejarte lo más posible de los problemas y tratar de no interferir en problemas ajenos. No será tu día para resolver cualquier tipo de conflicto.

Capricornio. ¿Por qué verlo todo de color negro, Capricornio? Tienes todo lo que hay que tener para que la vida tenga infinitos colores, también en el ámbito amoroso. Deja atrás los pensamientos negativos y saca lo mejor de ti. De esta manera atraerás amor, gloria, éxito y muchas cosas positivas a tu vida. Busca la fuerza en tu interior.

Dinero y trabajo. Muy probablemente te encontrarás en una situación algo dudosa en el trabajo. Puede que no tengas clara tu permanencia en el mismo, ya que alguien está tratando de hacerte quedar mal. Tienes que defenderte de una manera asertiva, mostrando lo mejor de ti, tu mejor sonrisa. No temas, si lo haces todo irá bien.

Acuario. Aparecerá alguien del pasado que tambaleará tus sentimientos y te hará dudar sobre tu relación. Quizás sea nada más que una idealización, sin embargo, es importante que seas sincero contigo mismo antes de cometer un error. Respetar al otro pasa por respetarse a uno mismo.

Dinero y trabajo. No te olvides del camino a seguir. Te has marcado unos objetivos profesionales por algún motivo, por lo que no lo eches todo por tierra por un obstáculo que tiene salvación. Tirar la toalla no estaba en el plan, así que no lo hagas, pues si no te acabarás arrepintiendo toda tu vida.

Piscis. Avivarás todo tu ingenio para ingeniar diferentes estrategias de seducción con tu pareja o la persona por la que bebes los vientos. Por fin te decidirás y harás algo por esa persona para que caiga rendida a tus pies. No podrá resistirse a tus encantos. Si quieres hacer algo especial, no te eches atrás, es tu momento, verás como todo sale bien.

Dinero y trabajo. Si es posible para ti, lo más probable es que te tomes un día libre de obligaciones profesionales, ya que necesitarás tiempo para ocuparte de otros asuntos, posiblemente amorosos o de gestión administrativa. Si no puedes hacerlo, necesitarás escaparte unas horas. Alguien del trabajo te cubrirá.

Cabrillo honors Rodney Fernandez Leadership Scholarship recipients

The Cabrillo Economic Development Corporation recognized its 2019 Rodney Fernandez Leadership Scholarships recipients on Thursday, July 30, during a meeting of the Board of Directors at Cabrillo's Snapdragon Place Apartments in Ventura.

Cabrillo Chief Executive Officer, Margarita H. De Escontrias welcomed the recipients, introduced the board members and thanked the members of the scholarship review panel for their commitment in determining the scholarship recipients.

This year, Cabrillo received 24 applications, and awarded $12,500 to 14 recipients. Edison International provided a $10,000 grant for STEM recipients, and another $2,500 funded by individual donations was distributed among recipients of all majors.

The Rodney Fernandez Leadership Scholarship Program, created in 2011, honors the legacy of Rodney Fernandez, Cabrillo's founder and Executive Director for 30 years (1981–2011). The Scholarship continues Fernandez's legacy of community building by cultivating the leadership of residents to attain their goals and empower themselves to take action to improve the quality of life in their communities.

"The Rodney Fernandez Leadership Scholarship applicants and recipients exemplify Rodney's dedication and commitment to making Ventura County a better place to live and work," said Jack Hinojosa, Chief Executive Officer of Child Development Resources of Ventura County and a member of the review panel.

"I was very impressed with the high-quality applications I reviewed and each of the recipients' commitment, dedication and passion for learning and higher education. More importantly, many of the recipients plan to return to the county to help our community after they graduate. Congratulations to all the RFLF recipients," he said.

Other members of the scholarship review panel were:

- Jaime Galvan, Programs and Events Manager at Ventura College Foundation
- Brian Gilpatrick, Managing Director, Ventura Region, Union Bank
- Christina Perez, Admissions Counselor, California Lutheran University.
- Jessica Cook, Assistant Vice President and Branch Operations Manager at Pacific Western Bank, Camarillo office, and a Cabrillo board member
- Denise Bickerstaff, Director of Business Development and Administration at Cabrillo

Luz Soto, Director of Property Management and Resident Services, introduced each of the recipients in attendance and welcomed their family members. About 40 people attended the event catered by El Pescador in Fillmore.

Two of the seven recipients in attendance spoke about themselves and the impact the scholarship will have on their ability to attend school and reach their educational goals.

Mireya Avila Mejia, a Fillmore High School graduate, is attending California State University, Channel Islands, in the Masters in Nursing program. She said she was inspired by nurses who tended to her mother, who was diagnosed with Thyroid Cancer and underwent surgery and radiation.

"I want to impact someone's life in a positive manner and help someone's mother in the way my mother was being helped. … As I embark on my nursing journey, I plan to get a job in the Ventura County area as a Nurse Practitioner. I will most likely be working in the Ventura County Hospital in the emergency unit, but it doesn't matter where I am as long as I am saving lives," Mejia said.

Yuliana Ceja, a Pacifica High School graduate, is attending Ventura College studying applied mathematics. She said she discovered her passion for mathematics while working as a tutor at Ventura College and Tutor Doctor, preparing high school students for SAT exams.

""My ultimate educational goal is to earn a bachelor's and master's degree in Applied Mathematics at CSUCI. My dream job is to become a math professor at a community college. As a college professor, I aspire to help students develop a love and understanding of mathematics," she said.

Panelist and Cabrillo board member Cook said she was impressed by the women who shared their experiences and gratitude. "I can relate to both women when they mentioned they could not speak English when they started school.

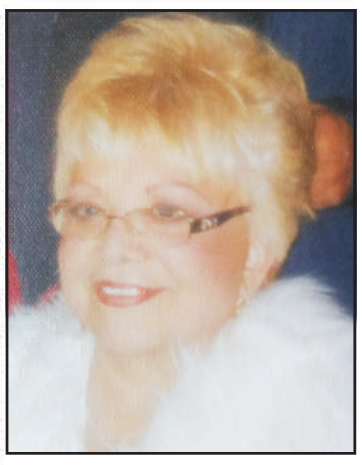
† REST IN PEACE †

Delia Alicia Murrieta



TUCSON, AZ - It is with great sorrow and heavy hearts that we announce the unexpected passing away of our beloved mother, sister, grandmother and great grandmother Delia Alicia Murrieta. Delia passed away on 7/28/19 at her home in Tucson AZ. where she lived for the past three years. Delia was born on April 14, 1942 in El Paso Texas to Hilario and Margarita Padilla, She was the second of four siblings and was raised in Tucson AZ. She attended grammar and High School at Immaculate Heart Academy where she graduated. After, she graduated from Tucson Beauty College where she obtained her cosmetology license. She married Francisco Javier Murrieta and had four children. Delia moved to Oxnard in 1971 where she worked with her sister at Monique Bridal Shop. Delia was a devoted and loving mother to her children. She was a provider, listener, and to her children she had a care free spirit, and was a welcome source of refuge and energy of great strength at all times. She will also be remembered by many of her family and friends for her vibrant smile and great sense of humor. Delia is survived by her daughter Yvonne Lynette Murrieta, sons Javier Jr. (Rosa) Murrieta, Rene, Cesar and Forrest Murrieta, four grandchildren and six great grandchildren. Her sister Irma Padilla Garner, and brother Raul (Edna) Padilla. She was preceded in death by her parents Hilario and Margarita Padilla and brother Reuben (Dickie) Padilla. The service will be held August 10th at 10:00 a.m. at St. Augustine Cathedral followed by a memorial at Carrillo Mortuary in Tucson AZ.

Seesaw project brought...

This week their design came to life — manifesting how the actions that occur on one side have a direct impact on the other.

"The seesaw represents the idea that talks about the balances and equalities, and how the border is a literal fulcrum between U.S. and Mexican relationships; whether you think about it economically, politically, or humanistically," said Rael.

On Sunday, Rael and his crew transported the pink seesaws to Sunland Park, New Mexico, where a slatted border wall fence separates it from Ciudad Juárez, Mexico.

"A lot of our work has to do with play, but it doesn't discount the violence that happens at the border. Pink represents both, it's fun and playful, but it was also used to memorialize the women who were killed in the femicides in Juarez," Rael said.

People on both sides of the border were able to unite for a moment, despite being divided by a fence. However, Rael was still concerned about how the authorities would react during the 30-min installation.

He then realized both Border Patrol and National Guard Soldiers understood the language. "They watched and smiled," he said.

While it was a moment of "connectedness", Rael says it was also meant to show the humanity of those living in border communities.

"I think people have many different kinds of perceptions of what's happening at the border today. I think the most important thing is to show there are people, families, children who live along the border and how the construction and politics of the wall affect their lives every day," Rael said.

An advocate for border communities, Rael says the wall is a scar that needs to be healed.

"The way we advocate for border communities is to not advocate for the design of walls. We advocate for the design in the spaces the wall has invaded. We think those are the spaces that need addressing, these are the spaces that are left vacant, dangerous, and disconnect people."

OXNARD PLANNING COMMISSION
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Oxnard Planning Commission will conduct a public hearing on Thursday, August 22, 2019, at 6:00 p.m. in the City Council Chambers at 305 West Third Street, Oxnard, CA 93030 to consider the following item:

PLANNING AND ZONING (PZ) PERMIT NO. 18-410-01 (Coastal Plan Amendment). A request to amend the City of Oxnard's (City) certified Local Coastal Program inclusive of the Coastal Local Plan Use (LUP) to incorporate a newly created land use designation of "Urban Village" to an approximately 11-acre site located at the southwest corner of Channel Islands Boulevard and Victoria Avenue commonly known as "Fisherman's Wharf" (APNs: 206-0-280-35 and 206-0-280-49). Based on the proposed new Urban Village land use designation, LUP Policy 23 is proposed to be amended to allow for a residential land use component at a density of 40 units per acre. Additionally, LUP Policy 35 would be amended to allow for the maximum height allowed to not exceed two stories or twenty-five feet in height, whichever is greater; and, at the corner of Victoria and Channel Islands Boulevard the height would be allowed at a maximum of 55 feet in height with an additional 10 feet in height allowed for the purposes of screening rooftop appurtenances. Section 21080.5 of the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) exempts local government from the requirement of preparing an environmental analysis in connection with its local coastal program. Instead, the CEQA responsibilities are assigned to the California Coastal Commission and the California Coastal Commission's LCP review and approval program has been found by the Resources Agency to be functionally equivalent to the EIR process. Filed by County of Ventura, 3900 Pelican Way, Oxnard, CA 93035.

At the public hearing, you may appear and be heard or you may write to the Planning Division at 214 South C Street, Oxnard, California, 93030, in support of or in opposition to this matter. Please contact the Planning Division office prior to the scheduled date to confirm that this item has not been rescheduled.

If you challenge the Planning Commission's action on this project in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues that your or someone else raised at this public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the Planning Commission on or before the date of the hearing.

The Planning Commission staff report, report materials, and plans will be available the Friday prior to the Planning Commission meeting by going to: https://www.oxnard.org/city-department/development-services-4/planning/oxnard-planning-commission-2019/

Beginning at 6:00 p.m., Channel 10 will televise and broadcast the meeting at which the public hearing will be conducted. For further information, contact Isidro Figueroa with the Planning Division, 214 South C Street, Oxnard, at (805) 385-8207 or isidro.figueroa@oxnard.org.

NOTICE INVITING BIDS FOR FLASHING PEDESTRIAN BEACON PROJECT SPECIFICATION NO. PW 19-71

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City of Oxnard, California invites sealed Bids for the Flashing Pedestrian Beacon Project. The City will receive such Bids at Oxnard City Hall, 300 West Third Street, Fourth Floor, Oxnard, California 93030, attention: City Clerk, until 2:00 p.m. on September 11, 2019. There will be a public bid opening immediately afterwards at 305 West Third Street, First Floor, Oxnard, California 93030 at the City Council Chambers.

SCOPE OF WORK. The 2015 edition of, and 2016 supplement to, the Standard Specifications for Public Works Construction (collectively the "Greenbook") is incorporated by this reference. As more specifically described in the Contract Documents, the Project includes furnishing all necessary labor, materials, equipment and other incidental and appurtenant Work to install flashing pedestrian safety beacons at 14 locations.

OBTAINING BID DOCUMENTS. All Bidders must be plan holders of record to submit a Bid to the City, which entails purchasing copies of all Contract Documents at CyberCopy's Plan Room, located at https://www.cybercopyplanroom.com/jobs/public. Printed copies will also be available at City Hall for the same price.

PREVAILING WAGES. This Project is a "public work" subject to the requirements of Division 2, Part 7, Chapter 1 of the Labor Code and Title 8, Division 1, Chapter 8 of the California Code of Regulations ("CCR"). The Contractor and all Subcontractors shall pay wages in accordance with the determination of the Director of the DIR. Copies of these rates are on file with the Project Coordinator at City Hall and will be made available to any interested party on request. They are also available at http://www.dir.ca.gov/Public-Works/Prevailing-Wage.html. The Contractor shall post a copy of the DIR's rates at each job site. This Project is subject to compliance monitoring and enforcement by the DIR. The Contractor shall furnish certified payroll records directly to the Labor Commissioner. Contractor and all Subcontractors are not qualified to bid on, be listed in a Bid proposal, or engage in the performance of any contract for public work, as defined in Labor Code Sections 1720 through 1861, unless registered and qualified to perform public work pursuant to Labor Code Section 1725.5 at the time of Bid submission.

BONDS. Each Bid must be accompanied by Bid security as described in the Instructions to Bidders in the Contract Documents. Upon Contract award, the successful Bidder shall provide both Payment and Performance Bonds—each at 100% of the Contract Price—to the City Clerk or his or her designee in accordance with Greenbook Section 2-4 and the Contract Documents. The Performance Bond shall include a one-year warranty period. Bonds must be on the forms in the Contract Documents unless other forms meet all of the City's requirements including that the Bond limit be automatically increased if the Contract amount is increased after execution of the Contract, and the City Attorney at his or her discretion approves the Surety's form. Whenever Bonds are submitted for this Project, Bidder must also submit a photocopy of each Bond.

LICENSES. Each Bidder shall possess a valid Class A or Class C-10 Contractor's license issued by California Contractors State License Board at the time of Bid submission and a current City business license at the time of Contract award.

RETENTION. The City shall withhold five percent (5%) of any progress payment as retention.

TRADE NAMES OR EQUALS. Tesco Controls, Inc., Cooper Lighting, Emtrac Systems, and McCain Traffic Supply items must be used on the Project as detailed in the Special Provisions because they are needed in order to match other products in use on this particular public improvement. Other than Tesco Controls, Inc., Cooper Lighting, Emtrac systems and McCain Traffic Supply items, Contractor may submit requests to substitute an equivalent material, product, thing or service for a brand or trade name material, product, thing or service must be made by written request submitted no later than fifteen (15) Calendar Days following the award of Contract. Requests received after this time shall not be considered. Requests must clearly describe the product for which approval is requested, including all data necessary to demonstrate acceptability.

LIQUIDATED DAMAGES. Contractor must complete all Work within sixty (60) Working Days of the City's Notice to Proceed. There will be a $1,250 assessment for each Calendar Day that Work remains incomplete beyond the Project completion deadline.

Inquiries regarding this Notice Inviting bids may be directed the Construction Project Coordinator, renee.hatcher@oxnard.org.

Oxnard woman pleads guilty to embezzling over $700,000 from elderly victim

Ventura County District Attorney Gregory D. Totten announced that on July 31, 2019, Oxnard resident Inez Marie Byars, 44 years old, pled guilty to seven felony charges of grand theft, forgery, elder/dependent fraud and identity theft. Byars also admitted the aggravated white-collar crime enhancement. The charges against Byars resulted from an investigation conducted by the Oxnard Police Department.

Byars was the longtime bookkeeper for an elderly and disabled Oxnard resident who owns a real estate company called Discountland, Inc. The investigation in this case revealed that over many years, Byars secretly embezzled money by misappropriating her employer's corporate and personal funds for her own benefit. She accomplished her thefts by routinely forging checks and misusing a company ATM/debit card. Byars also used her employer's identity to open and use credit accounts for her personal benefit without her employer's authorization. Byars concealed her theft for years by failing to make property tax payments on numerous parcels her employer's company managed. To date, the cumulative amount Byars embezzled in this case totals approximately $742,000.

Byars remains in custody pending her sentencing hearing, which will occur on September 3, 2019. Byars is expected to receive a sentence of nine years in prison.

Get transported back to the decade of big hair, neon and synthesizers when the "Lost 80's Live Tour" arrives at the Chumash Casino Resort's Samala Showroom for healthy dose of nostalgia at 8 p.m. on Friday, August 30, 2019. Tickets for the show are $69, $74, $79, $89 & $99.

The annual '80s-era tour is making its first appearance the Chumash Casino Resort with a lineup featuring a blend of English and American new wave artists who were mainstays on MTV during the network's heyday.

Get ready for performances by A Flock of Seagulls ("I Ran" and "Space Age Love Song"), Missing Persons ("Words" and "Walking in L.A."), Wang Chung ("Dance Hall Days" and "Everybody Have Fun Tonight"), Bow Wow Wow ("I Want Candy"), The Escape Club ("Wild, Wild West" and "I'll Be There"), Real Life ("Send Me an Angel"), The Vapors ("Turning Japanese"), The Motels ("Only the Lonely" and "Suddenly Last Summer"), Boys Don't Cry ("I Wanna Be a Cowboy") and Farrington & Mann – the original members of When in Rome UK ("The Promise").

The Lost 80's Live Tour creates a unique experience for new wave fans to see multiple bands playing their greatest hits all on one stage. The ninth stop on this 13-city, U.S. tour will be the intimate setting of the 1,400-seat Samala Showroom at the Chumash Casino Resort.

Don't miss an opportunity to see these hits performed live in one of the most popular music venues in Santa Barbara County.

Located on Highway 246 in Santa Ynez, California, the Chumash Casino Resort is an age 21-and-older venue. Tickets for all events are available at The CLUB at Chumash or online at www.chumashcasino.com.

Alto riesgo para embarazadas

Los bebés gestados en la cercanía de pozos petroleros corren "muy alto riesgo" de nacer con problemas cardíacos y pulmonares, según revela un estudio difundido esta semana.

El estudio, realizado por la Escuela de Salud Pública de la Universidad de Colorado en Denver, sostiene que las madres embarazadas que viven cerca de "extensas operaciones de petróleo y gas natural" durante la etapa temprana de su embarazo tienen entre cuatro y siete veces más posibilidades de dar a luz niños con corazones, pulmones o arterias defectuosas.

Aunque el tema ya había sido analizado por otros investigadores, se necesitaba "una nueva y robusta evaluación" para determinar el alcance de la relación entre "proximidad maternal a petróleo y gas" y "nacimientos con defectos cardíacos congénitos (DCC)", explicó Lisa McKenzie, supervisora del estudio publicado en el número más reciente de Enviroment Internacional.

La simple observación de que "cada vez vemos más niños que nacen con DCC en áreas con alta intensidad de actividades de petróleo y gas natural" no resulta suficiente para establecer la correlación entre una y otra situación, sostiene McKenzie.

Por ello, junto a sus colaboradores analizaron datos de 3,324 nacimientos en Colorado ocurridos entre los años 2005 y 2011 de niños gestados cerca de pozos petroleros, que se compararon con otros 2,860 nacimientos de niños gestados alejados de pozos petroleros.

La conclusión fue clara: "Este estudio provee nueva evidencia de una asociación positiva entre la proximidad material a actividades en pozos de gas y petróleo y varios tipos de DCC, particularmente en áreas rurales".

El reporte subraya que vivir a menos de 15 kilómetros de operaciones petroleras expone a las personas a "contaminantes peligrosos en el aire, tanto químicos (diésel y benceno, por ejemplo), como no químicos, con resultados perjudiciales para el desarrollo de los embriones si los contaminantes afectan a la madre en los 20 a 60 días desde el inicio de la gestación".

A la vez, "aún no se entiende totalmente" de qué manera el hecho de que la madre quede expuesta a contaminación ambiental produce defectos cardíacos en el bebé, pero la "evidencia disponible" indica que las células embriónicas se forman de otra manera bajo esas condiciones, tanto en los humanos como en animales.

Por eso, McKenzie y su equipo pidieron que "se continúe realizando investigaciones integrales y rigurosas sobre las consecuencias en la salud de la vida temprana expuesta a actividades de gas y petróleo".

En febrero de 2017 McKenzie publicó un reporte sobre la conexión de actividades petroleras y cáncer infantil y luego, en abril de 2018, amplió ese reporte para incluir a adultos.

Según el Instituto Nacional de Ciencias de Salud Ambiental (NIEHS), unos 17.6 millones de personas en Estados Unidos viven a menos de 1.6 kilómetros de pozos petroleros, con 4.5 millones de esas personas en Texas, el estado con el mayor número de actividades petroleras en el país así como California.

de inmigración Fernando Romo la decisión sobre el caso de José no es extraña.

"Toda persona que declare que haya consumido sustancias controladas es declarado como no admisible, incluso si lo hizo en California, donde el consumo es legal", subraya.

El jurista advierte que la regla afecta también a las personas que abusan del alcohol, y que estas declaraciones afirmativas sobre uso de las mencionadas sustancias también afectan a los peticionarios de ciudadanía.

Sobre la orden de rehabilitación de tres meses, el abogado apunta que es una exigencia mínima y que por lo general los periodos son de un año. Incluso se les obliga a presentar muestras de orina con cierta regularidad.

"¿Qué estamos enseñándole a nuestros niños estadounidenses, que decir la verdad es una equivocación"?, pregunta la mujer.

"Mis hijos están sufriendo una separación y esto los puede marcar para toda la vida. ¿Es tan difícil de entender?", vuelve a preguntar.

José está en Ciudad de México sin saber dónde y cuándo tiene que realizar la rehabilitación de su supuesta adicción. También desconoce la fecha en que podrá regresar al país que considera su único hogar.

Una mujer le diagnostican una enfermedad terminal y solo tiene 2 meses de vida.
Decide ir con un pintor para que le haga un retrato y así dejar un bello recuerdo a su familia.
El día que llega al taller del pintor, se sienta para posar y el pintor la empieza a retratar.
Al cabo de un rato ella le dice:
-Perdón, ¿podría pintarme una diadema de diamantes en la cabeza?
-Si señora, por supuesto.
Al cabo de unos minutos:
-¿Y un collar de perlas en el cuello?
-Por supuesto señora.
Y le va pidiendo que le pinte también un anillo con un rubí, una pulsera de oro macizo, etc.
Al cabo de unas horas el retrato queda acabado. La señora parecía una reina toda llena de joyas.
El pintor le dice:
-Perdone señora, ¿Para qué ha querido que le pinte tantas joyas?
-Pues… ¡Para que la zorra con la que se case mi marido se vuelva loca buscándolas!

Muertes por sobredosis de droga aumentan

Datos preliminares dan cuenta de unas 68,000 muertes por sobredosis el año pasado comparado con más de 70,000 en 2017.

Las muertes por sobredosis de drogas, que por años se habían concentrado en áreas rurales, han aumentado a un ritmo más rápido otra vez en las ciudades grandes del país, informó los Centros para el Control y Prevención de Enfermedades (CDC, en inglés).

La agencia señaló que la incidencia de muertes por sobredosis en áreas urbanas superó la tasa de muertes en áreas rurales en 2016 y 2017, contrariando la tendencia de mortalidad per cápita por sobredosis, que en años anteriores se concentraba principalmente en los condados menos poblados.

"Esto indica que el problema de las drogas existe en todas partes", señaló Holly Hedegaar, autora principal del informe y epidemióloga en el Centro Nacional de Estadísticas de Salud del CDC.

En 2017 la tasa de muerte por sobredosis de drogas fue de 22 por 100,000 habitantes en los condados urbanos comparado con 20 por cada 100,000 en los condados rurales.

Las muertes por la administración de dosis excesivas de drogas ilegales y medicamentos bajo receta han aumentado enormemente en las últimas dos décadas en todo el país, pero entre 2014 y 2017 la tasa de incremento en las ciudades se ha multiplicado más de dos veces.

Los investigadores del CDC encontraron que el incremento de las muertes por sobredosis de heroína, el opioide sintético fentanilo y cocaína en áreas urbanas lo encabezan los hombres.

La tasa de muerte por sobredosis de heroína, fentanilo y cocaína fue más alta en 2017 en los condados urbanos que en los rurales.

A cambio de ello, las áreas rurales registraron tasas más altas de muertes por sobredosis de morfina, oxicodone y otros opioides naturales o semi sintéticos, como asimismo anfentaminas y otros psicotrópicos estimulantes.

Hedegaard explicó que la mayor distribución y disponibilidad de fentanilo contribuye a explicar los cambios geográficos.

Las tasas de muerte por metanfetaminas y estimulantes similares siguieron siendo más altas en las áreas rurales, con 4 muertes por cada 100,000 habitantes en 2017, comparado con 3.1 por cada 100,000 en los condados urbanos.

Los CDC informaron recientemente que las muertes por sobredosis de drogas parecen haber disminuido en 2018 por primera vez en casi tres décadas.

Los datos preliminares de CDC, no incluidos en el informe divulgado, dan cuenta de unas 68,000 muertes el año pasado comparado con más de 70,000 en 2017.

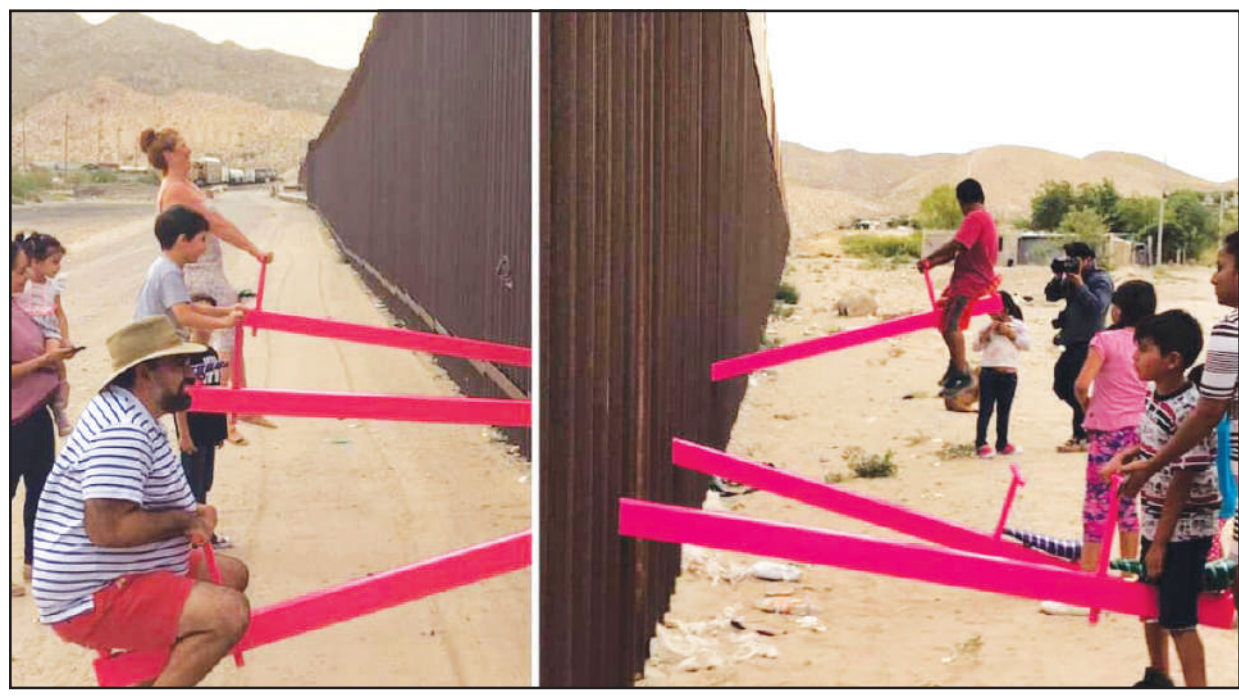
El proyecto Seesaw trajo un momento de "alegría" y "conectividad"



Niños jugando en balancines suele ser una escena ordinaria en un parque tradicional, pero esta vez la valla del muro fronterizo entre Estados Unidos y México fue el punto de encuentro.

Por Sandra Rodríguez

Instalados dentro de la valla fronteriza de listones de acero que separa a los Estados Unidos de México, tres balancines rosados unieron dos comunidades binacionales, permitiendo que los niños de ambos lados se conectaran entre sí, y cerrando brevemente las cicatrices dejadas por la división.

Los autores intelectuales del proyecto "Teeter-Totter Wall", Ronald Rael, profesor de arquitectura en la Universidad de California (Berkeley) y Virginia San Fratello, profesora asociada de diseño en la Universidad Estatal de San José, diseñaron el concepto para los balancines binacionales hace diez años.

Esta semana su diseño cobró vida, evidenciando cómo las acciones que ocurren en un lado tienen un impacto directo en el otro.

"El balancín representa la idea que habla de los equilibrios y las igualdades, y de cómo la frontera es un punto de apoyo literal entre las relaciones entre Estados Unidos y México, ya sea concebido económica, política o humanísticamente , dijo Rael.

El domingo, Rael y su equipo transportaron los balancines rosados a Sunland Park, Nuevo México, donde una valla de listón en la frontera le separa de Ciudad Juárez, México.

"Gran parte de nuestro trabajo tiene que ver con el juego, pero no descarta la violencia que ocurre en la frontera. El color rosa representa ambos: es divertido y lúdico, pero también se usó para conmemorar a las mujeres que fueron asesinadas en Juárez", dijo Rael.

Las personas a ambos lados de la frontera se unieron por un momento, a pesar de estar divididas por una cerca. Sin embargo, a Rael todavía le preocupaba cómo reaccionarían las autoridades durante la instalación de 30 minutos.

Luego se dio cuenta de que tanto la Patrulla Fronteriza como los soldados de la Guardia Nacional de Mexico entendían el idioma. "Observaron y sonrieron", dijo.

Si bien fue un momento de "conexión", Rael dice que también estaba destinado a mostrar la humanidad de quienes viven en comunidades fronterizas.

"Creo que las personas tienen muchos tipos diferentes de percepciones de lo que está sucediendo hoy en la frontera. Creo que lo más importante es mostrar que hay personas, familias, niños que viven a lo largo de la frontera y cómo la construcción y la política del muro afectan su día a día", agregó.

"La forma en que abogamos por las comunidades fronterizas es rechazando el diseño de muros. Abogamos por el diseño en los espacios que la pared ha invadido. Creemos que esos son los espacios que necesitan abordarse, estos son los espacios que quedan vacíos, peligrosos y que desconectan a las personas".

En un avión comercial lleno de pasajeros el piloto les habla por la radio a los pasajeros:
-Buenos días señores pasajeros, les habla su capitán, en este exacto momento estamos a 9,000 metros de altura, a una velocidad de 470 millas por hora y sobrevolando la ciudad de ¡OOOHHH DIOS MIOOO!
Los pasajeros escuchan un grito pavoroso, seguido de un ruido infernal.
-¡NOOOOO…no puede ser!
-¡Noo.. mierdaaa… nooo!
Y luego un silencio de radio que se hace eterno, todo mundo acojonado pensando que puede haber pasado…
Segundos después, el capitán vuelve a tomar el micrófono y riendo se disculpa:
-Disculpen, señores pasajeros, tiré mi bandeja y mi taza de café caliente se me cayó encima. No quieran saber cómo quedó la parte delante de mis pantalones…
Y uno de los pasajeros grita:
-¡¿Tus pantalones?! ¡Maldito cabr$%n… Tendrías que ver como quedó la parte de atrás de los míos!

CARTA AL EDITOR

¡Los crímenes de odio deben parar!

Estimado editor,

Sé que no estoy solo cuando digo, estoy muy preocupado y triste por las recientes noticias de varios tiroteos masivos en nuestra nación. Hemos sido testigos de personas inocentes en Gilroy, California; South Haven, Mississippi; El Paso, Texas; y Dayton, Ohio, se convierten en víctimas del terrorismo doméstico. No olvidaremos el tiroteo en Borderline que ocurrió aquí en el condado de Ventura.

¡Los crímenes de odio deben parar!

Necesitamos hablar con fuerza. Por favor, escriba o llame a su Senador y Representante en el Congreso para recordarles que el terrorismo interno y los crímenes de odio deben ser su máxima prioridad. Debemos detener la masacre de nuestros ciudadanos. Nuestros funcionarios electos juran protegernos y defendernos.

Debemos evitar que las armas de tipo militar se compren tan fácilmente en tiendas de armas locales, tiendas de equipos deportivos y en línea. Estas armas se están utilizando para matar a nuestra propia gente.

Nuestros residentes deberían poder asistir a la iglesia o grandes reuniones, eventos públicos, ir de compras a centros comerciales, disfrutar de actividades en ciudades abarrotadas y otras atracciones sin temor a que los maten.

Algunos de nuestros líderes nacionales necesitan cambiar su retórica de insultos antiinmigrantes. Estados Unidos es el país más grande y diverso del mundo.

Nosotros, como estadounidenses, debemos hablar en contra del odio y la discriminación hacia nuestros semejantes.

Específicamente, los actos de violencia dirigidos contra hispanos y latinos, como en El Paso, son terrorismo doméstico.

Escriba o llame a sus representantes estatales y federales para compartir sus inquietudes.

Respetuosamente,
John C. Zaragoza
Supervisor del Condado, Quinto Distrito

John C. Zaragoza
County Supervisor, Fifth District

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Hate crimes must stop!

Dear Editor,

I know I'm not alone when I say, I am very concerned and saddened by the recent news of several mass shootings in our nation. We have witnessed innocent people in Gilroy, California; South Haven, Mississippi; El Paso, Texas; and Dayton, Ohio become victims of domestic terrorism. We shall not forget the Borderline shooting that occurred here in Ventura County.

Hate crimes must stop!

We need to speak up. Please write or call your United States Senator and Representative to remind them domestic terrorism and hate crimes must be their top priority. We must stop the massacre of our citizens. Our elected officials take an oath to protect and defend us.

We must stop military style weapons from being purchased so easily at local gun stores, sport equipment stores and online. These weapons are being used to slaughter our own people.

Our residents should be able to attend church or large gatherings, public events, go shopping at malls, enjoy activities in crowded cities and other attractions without fear of being shot.

Some of our National leaders need to change their rhetoric of anti-immigrant name-calling. The United States of America is the greatest, most diverse, country in the world.

We as Americans, must speak up against hate and discrimination towards our fellow human beings.

Specifically, acts of violence directed towards Hispanics and Latinos, such as in El Paso, is domestic terrorism.

Please write or call your State and Federal Representatives to share your concerns.

Respectfully,
John C. Zaragoza
County Supervisor, Fifth District

Mujer culpable de robar $700,000 de una anciana

El fiscal de distrito del condado de Ventura, Gregory D. Totten anunció que el 31 de julio de 2019, Inez Marie Byars, residente de Oxnard, de 44 años edad, se declaró culpable de siete cargos de delito mayor de robo, falsificación, fraude a ancianos / dependientes y robo de identidad. Byars también admitió el delito de agravación. Los cargos contra Byars resultaron de una investigación realizada por el Departamento de Policía de Oxnard.

Byars fue la contadora durante mucho tiempo para un residente de Oxnard de edad avanzada y discapacitado que es dueño de una compañía de bienes raíces llamada Discountland, Inc. La investigación en este caso reveló que durante muchos años, Byars mal gasto en secreto el dinero al apropiarse indebidamente de los fondos corporativos y personales de su empleador para su propio beneficio. Ella logró falsificar cheques y obtuvo una tarjeta de débito para cajero automático de la empresa. Byars también usó la identidad de su empleador para abrir y usar cuentas de crédito para su beneficio personal sin la autorización de su empleador. Byars permanece bajo custodia en espera de su audiencia de sentencia, que tendrá lugar el 3 de septiembre de 2019. Se espera que Byars reciba una sentencia de nueve años en prisión.

Demanda de 50 millones por muerte de niño latino

Familiares del niño Anthony Ávalos, quién presuntamente murió torturado por su madre y el novio de esta, presentaron este jueves una demanda por 50 millones de dólares contra el Condado de Los Ángeles por su responsabilidad en el deceso del menor.

El niño, de 10 años, falleció el 21 de junio de 2018 luego de haber sido hospitalizado a causa de una supuesta caída, pero tras una investigación la madre del menor, Heather Barron, de 29 años, y su novio, Kareem Leiva, de 33, fueron acusados de asesinato y tortura por la Fiscalía.

Víctor Ávalos y seis de los medios hermanos de Anthony argumentan en la demanda que las autoridades del condado, del Departamento de Servicios para Niños y Familias (DCFS) y varios trabajadores sociales no respondieron de manera adecuada luego de los informes de abusos contra Anthony y sus hermanos.

Según la Fiscalía, Anthony sufrió golpes contra el suelo, fue azotado con un cable y una correa, se le prohibió usar el baño durante largos periodos y se le colocó salsa picante en la boca, entre otras torturas.

Los investigadores sospechan que los abusos y torturas tienen que ver con que el menor dijo que era homosexual.

En una conferencia de prensa ofrecida, el abogado Brian Claypool, que representa a los demandantes, aseguró "que hubo muchas veces en que Anthony y sus hermanos revelaron al DCFS lo mal que la estaban pasando".

"¿Los trabajadores de DCFS realmente vieron a estos niños abusados, y aún no hicieron nada al respecto?", cuestionó el jurista.

De acuerdo a la querella legal, los registros muestran que los funcionarios de DCFS no investigaron adecuadamente las denuncias de abuso físico y sexual que estaba sufriendo el menor.

La demanda pide 50 millones de dólares de indemnización, y cambios en las políticas del DCFS, que atiende a unas 34,000 familias y niños vulnerables en el Condado de Los Ángeles.

Las muertes de otros dos niños hispanos a manos de sus padres son mencionadas también en la demanda.

Una de ellas ocurrió en mayo de 2013 en Palmdale, ciudad vecina de Lancaster, donde murió Ávalos, dónde falleció Gabriel Fernández, de 8 años. Su madre, Pearl Sinthia Fernández, fue condenada a cadena perpetua por la muerte del menor y su novio, Isauro Aguirre, enfrenta la pena muerte.

Adrienne Arsht para América Latina del instituto de estudios Atlantic Council, consideró que "no cabe la menor duda de que hubo motivos de odio y xenofobia detrás de la masacre en El Paso".

"Casi la mitad de los fallecidos son mexicanos, y no es casualidad. Mientras el Departamento de Estado advierte a sus ciudadanos sobre la violencia y peligro de ciertas ciudades en México, la realidad es que más y más mexicanos son el blanco de violencia en EE.UU.", sostuvo la experta.

Pérez opinó que el Gobierno "debe tomar una fuerte postura contra todo tipo de crímenes de terrorismo doméstico, y aún más, contra crímenes con trasfondos de odio", y recalcó que "las palabras y acciones del presidente Trump no pueden seguir incentivando violencia contra los grupos migrantes".

El ataque en El Paso ha sacudido al país y agitado del debate político sobre el racismo, la xenofobia y la tenencia de armas, a lo que se sumó otro tiroteo el domingo en Dayton (Ohio) en el que hubo otros 9 muertos además del atacante.

La policía detiene a un borracho a las tres de la mañana.
El policía le pregunta:
-¿A dónde va usted?
-Voy a una conferencia sobre el abuso del alcohol y sus efectos letales en el organismo, el mal ejemplo para los hijos y las consecuencias nefastas para la familia, el problema que causa en la economía familiar y la irresponsabilidad absoluta…
El policía lo mira incrédulo y le dice:
-¿En serio?, y ¿quién va a dar esa conferencia a esta hora?
-¿Quién va a ser?...! Mi mujer cuando yo llegue a mi casa!
